Request Text: ATIA request from I

I am seeking primary sources under the Access to Information Act. Two of my principal actors, both of whom are deceased, are Roosevelt "Rosie" Douglas - the Dominican student activist who led the Sir George Williams computer protest in 1969, and whom our federal government subsequently deported in 1976, as well as Warren Hart-an African American veteran of the Korean War and an informer whom the RCMP effectively "loaned" from the U.S. Justice Department (most likely the FBI) in 1971-75 to surveil Roosevelt Douglas and black organizations in Toronto and throughout Canada and the Caribbean.

I am especially interested in any documents that CSIS has relating to these two men or their activities and movements, especially their travels to the Caribbean between 1971 and 1976. Specifically, I would be indebted, if you could provide me with documents relating to the following:

- 1 Files on Roosevelt "Rosie" Douglas and Warren Hart
2. Black radicals and black nationalism in the 1960s and '70s
3. "Operation Checkmate" circa mid-1960s
4. Which persons or organizations in Canada and the United States did the RCMP inform/negotiate with to bring Warren Hart to Canada?
5. Warren Hart's handlers: Corporal Wayne McMorran, Sergeant Ian Brown (believed to be the RCMP officer who recommended Hart as an informer for the RCMP)
6. The RCMP sent Hart to Caribbean islands such as Antigua, Barbados, St. Vincent, Guyana, and Dominica to spy on black radicals and "train" guerrilla forces in black liberation movements
7. According to Hart, his RCMP handlers sometimes travelled with him to the Caribbean where they briefed British (MI6) agents working in the Caribbean re: black liberation struggles in the region
8. Correspondences between the RCMP and FBI or NSA or CIA or British officials (MI6) regarding concerns over black radicals and nationalists in Canada, the United States, and the Caribbean
9. Space Research Corp (SRC), a Canadian/U.S. arms dealer based in Antigua, hired Hart in 1978 as an organizer to diffuse youth mobilization against the corporation's presence on the Caribbean island. Canada ordered the RCMP to investigate SRC for allegedly smuggling shells to apartheid South Africa. Is this report/investigation available?
10. Juan Melito, an organized crime figure whom Hart allegedly smuggled into the U.S. from Niagara Falls in 1973; and likewise Attilio Agostino in 1971
11. Tim Hector, liberation movement leader in Antigua in the early 1970s
12. Horace Campbell, an African Canadian man and friend of Roosevelt Douglas
13. Vietnam War draft resisters, deserters, or "dodgers" who emigrated from the United States to Canada, especially Ontario (Windsor, Toronto, etc.) during the war years.

I have done my best to provide first and last names whenever possible, as well (approximate) dates."
